What does HUPE do?

HUPE (Croatian Association of Teachers of English) is a professional association of people who are involved in ELT. It was set up in June 1992. As a vibrant professional association, it is continually evolving to meet its members' interests and needs in the range of activities that it undertakes.

Become a member

Becoming a member of HUPE will connect you with fellow English teaching professionals around Croatia and abroad. You will be able to attend conferences, branch meetings and webinars organized by HUPE. You will receive our regular newsletter and a magazine Hupezine, containing the latest trends in the world of English language teaching. Furthermore, by becoming a member you are entitled to a conference fee at the discount rate.

Membership is open to anyone involved in the ELT industry. Regular membership costs 24 € per year. Students, unemployed and retired members pay 12 € per year. Your membership is valid for 12 months from receipt of your form and payment.

How can you get involved? How can HUPE membership benefit you?

- You can read and hear about the latest developments in ELT.
- You can participate at HUPE Branch meetings and workshops
- You can get a free subscription to HUPE Newsletter.
- You can write articles for HUPEzine.
- You can attend Annual International HUPE Conference at the reduced membership rate.
- You can become a student helper at the Annual International HUPE Conference.
- You can participate at the partners' conferences throughout the year and Europe

HUPE has established a long and successful cooperation with the British Council, it is known worldwide as an IATEFL Associate and a member of the TESOL Affiliate Network, and has the cooperation with the United States Information Service as well as with many other ELT associations around the world. The above mentioned cooperation results in mutual support among these organizations (exchange of speakers, organizational assistance etc.).

In order to find out more on what, when and where something is happening, consult our webpage or simply like our HUPE Facebook page.
